

THE HECK!!!

File under: Sixties punk, Garage rock, Teenage loserbeat

Wild, wild, wild! THE HECK is Sensational Second Cousin Henri's new 60's garage punk outfit. Sonically a progression from his former band De Keefmen, feel free to place them somewhere in between The Sonics and Reigning Sound. Their debut WHO? THE HECK!!!, out on Dirty Water Records, is full of razor-sharp catchy pop songs, served with the power and intensity of pure punk. High pace, hectic and energetic live performances, most usually with several band members ending up somewhere in the crowd. Seeing is believing!

HERE'S WHAT PEOPLE AROUND THE GLOBE WROTE

"This grit-encrusted arsenal of tunes certainly gives a good account of the group's abilities as punk garage contenders. ★★★★★"

Lenny Helsing – Shindig! Magazine – England

"Sulmann sticks his neck out with The Heck and continues to pull the amplifiers, capable of playing ecumenical and vibrating passages of great class. ★★★★★"

Manuel Graziani – Rumore magazine – Italy

"If garage rock is your poison, you'll take to this like a member of the Dutch Royal Family attacks a bottle of Jenever. ★★★★★"

Craig Barman – I94bar – Australia

"Their know-how as a composer places them in front of many other more or less famous groups: a very delightful album that you shouldn't miss!"

Voix De Garage – France*

"Incredibly tasty, howling, home-grown garage rock & roll: Who? The Heck!!!"

Menno Pot – Volkskrant – Netherlands

"That Moon will soothe all that ails when it leaves you howlin' for more"

Chris K – Bananas Magazine – United States

"Foot stomping garage punk rock where the amps are turned up to 10 and the band plays like it's the last night on earth"

RPM it's a revolution – England*
